

What is the Association of Construction Project Managers (ACPM)?

ACPM Value Proposition

Excellence in project delivery through industry leadership

--Headline Statement--

The ACPM was established in 1998 and is an accredited SACPCMP Voluntary Association which operates as an independent body for Individual and Corporate members with expertise in Construction Project Management. In addition, the ACPM, in pursuit of excellence, is the custodian of the affairs and interests of CPM professionals. It furthermore promotes professionalism and strived to ensure that standards expected of CPM professionals are adhered to.

1. Transform - Be an industry leader in the transformation of the industry towards a highly skilled, competent, efficient and inclusive Construction Project Management profession.
2. Sustain - Be the voice that advances and promotes recognition of CPM expertise to increase and sustain profitability of the membership base for economic growth.
3. Excel – Be the 'go to' organisation for clients, whether they are national or private, sponsors and beneficiaries seeking excellence in construction projects by the inclusion in all construction projects of professional Construction Project Management Companies.

Why be a member?

- ACPM is the voice of project managers in the built environment in South Africa.
- ACPM is a voluntary association working in the best interest of professional project managers.
- It focuses on uplifting the profession of project management and maintaining professional standards in the development and construction industry.
- It looks to enhance project management skill sets through accessible and relevant education for CPD points.
- The Association is the vehicle for professional registered project managers to address common issues and concerns with the project management legislated Council (SACPCMP).
- It provides a platform for PM's to influence the direction of the profession.
- It is a mechanism to co-ordinate the direction of the industry through MOU's with other key industry professions, disciplines and stakeholders, eg. SAIA, ASAQS, Government Bodies, etc.
- Allows for PM's to add value on contract updates to align with on the ground experiences, eg. PROCESA, JBCC, etc.
- The greater the ACPM membership, the greater the voice of PM's
- Look after the interests of CPM's and proactively advocate for changes, processes and legislation in the best interests of CPM's"

Benefits of being a member of the ACPM

Individual and Corporate Members

- Association for project management professionals
- Gain access to cutting edge project and construction management practices
- Participate and influence the direction of the Profession
- Commercial and peer recognition of expertise
- Exposure to the latest developments in the Profession and Construction Industry
- Consistent and high standards of service delivery to the end-user
- Enhanced professional status
- Interface with SACPCMP
- Cost effective CPD activities at the comfort of your own space in order to fully compliant
- Get access to understand and knowledge of Construction Contracts such as JBCC

Membership Categories:

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

Student Members

Students registered in their second, or later years of study in terms of an approved course may apply for student membership.

Associate Members

Persons engaged in project management and who have attained an approved academic qualification and/or have attained appropriate project management experience.

Affiliate Members

Persons who have the necessary professional skills and practice Project Management from time to time but not as their core business.

Full Members

A person whose core profession is project management, as a full member where such person has attained appropriate project management experience.

Honorary Members

A person who has contributed significantly to the profession and is no longer practicing.

CORPORATE MEMBERS

Body corporates engaged in professional project management may apply for corporate membership provided that at least 50% of the principals are full members and such 50% comprises (of) at least 2 full members.

Full Corporate Member

Body corporates engaged in professional project management may apply for Full Corporate membership provided that at least 50% of the principals and or directors are full members and such 50% comprises of at least two (2) or more full members registered with SACPCMP.

Associate Corporate Member

Body corporates engaged in professional project management may apply for Associate Corporate membership provided that one principal and or director is a full member and that such member is registered with the SACPCMP.